[Redacted]

25X1 Heavy weapons shipped viz Angermuende to Prenzlau during the period from 9 to 20 September 1952 included 108 T-34 tanks, 32 heavy assault guns, 29 light assault guns and 56 armored reconnaissance cars. * The weapons were stored in the area southeast of the barracks installation. ** Equipment shipped from Prenzlau toward Torgelow-Eggesin during the same period included 26 T-34 tanks, 15 heavy assault guns, 23 light assault guns and 5 armored reconnaissance cars. ***

25X1 [Redacted] Comment. These shipments, part of them were reported previously, probably arrived from Brest-Litovsk via Frankfurt/Oder. [Redacted]

25X1 [Redacted] Comment. It appears that the weapons consigned to the Volkspolizei are handed over in Prenzlau from where they are forwarded to the various assembling areas of Volkspolizei units.
